HOMECOMING 1975 seemed to be against us this year; it rained, the band didn't come for the dance, and we lost the game. Darlene Cline was crowned by last year's queen, Sue Yost, in the auditorium and her escort, Mallory McDaniel was named king

Go Hand In Hand.

Once again, the FFA and its advisors sponsored an interesting American Education Week. A variety of speakers and artists allowed juniors and seniors to leave their English alone for a week.

The week was educational in that students learned from the speakers different interests and occupations.

American Education Week— November 17-21

BANDWAGON

This year Doctor Dimwitty brought his medicine show to West Rowan. The annual variety show was held November 20 and 21. Set in a western mood, the show was complete with The Dirty Dog Saloon, a jailhouse, and a General Store. A real sheriff was on hand and of course the town drunk made his appearance. Other performers in the Medicine Show were singer Doug Smith, a group of tumblers, and a live Blue Grass Band accompanying the Young Mountain Cloggers.

The show ended with a genuine Can Can girl routine which closed one of the greatest Bandwagons ever thanks to the tremendous work of the cast and crew, Mrs. Jarlton and Mr. Cannon.

Young Mountain Cloggers

Bandwagon marked the beginning of a remarkably talented group of dancers known as the Young Mountain Cloggers. Almost every week of the year they entertained such groups as elementary and junior high school classes, church and civic groups, and the Booster Club auction. They won first prize at the county-wide talent show at North and represented West at the Capitol Square Arts Festival in Raleigh. Shown here are highlights from their Raleigh appearance and a meeting with Rep. Neal Smith at the legislature.

STAIRWAY

West Rowan High School held its annual Junior-Senior Prom on Saturday, April 3, 1976, at the Crystal Lounge on the Catawba College Campus. No one could have asked for better weather. It was sunny during the day and continued to be nice throughout the evening. The entertainment for the Prom was the U S Welfare Band from Charlotte, N.C. The theme, "Stairway to Heaven," was carried out with decorations throughout the Lounge. Neely McLaughlin, Master of Ceremonies, introduced Tim Cohen, junior class president, who delivered the welcome, Claude Bruce, senior class president, who delivered the response, and Co-Chairmen of the Prom, Sandra Wooten and Tommy Cuthbertson. Then Neely introduced the members of the Grand March. It was a very enjoyable evening.

TO HEAVEN

At the beginning of the year the NHS went to the Bear Popular Yacht Club in Lake Norman for a picnic. Also Phil Kirk came and spoke to the group on "Youth and politics". They also took a trip to Pineville Dinner Theater to see "Hello Dolly". Then the Spring of the year came and 51 new members were tapped into the NHS. For the final trip of the year they went to the Legislature in Raleigh and were the guest of Neal Smith and Robie Nash.

The National Honor Society

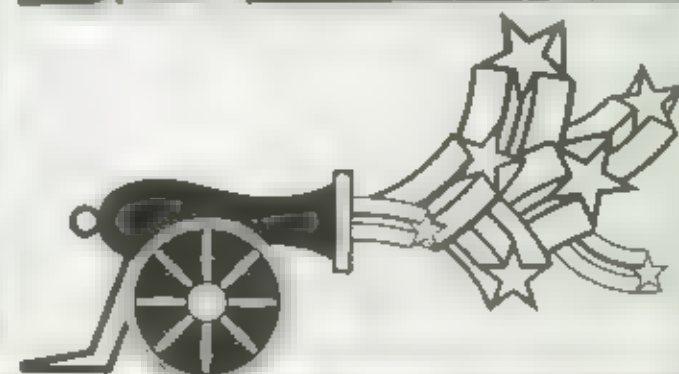

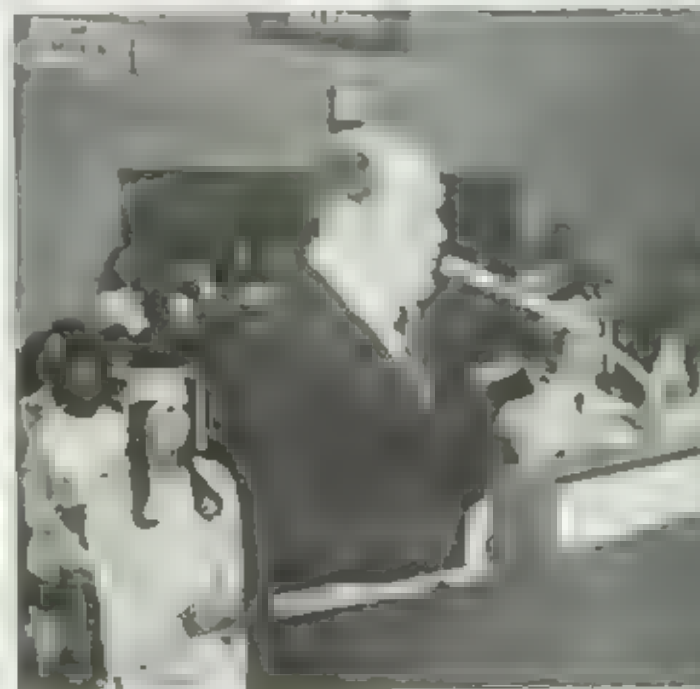

This year West had six students attending the I.Q Bowl in Greensboro. They came in eleventh place out of forty schools attending. The students who made up our team were (l-r) Mona Avery, Carla Dean, Dale Safrit, Pam Jordan, Alan Wood, and Mark Thompson. Mrs. Sloop and Miss Edmundson were the advisors

Mark Wetmore won first place in the FFA contest this year. He worked very hard and we are proud to be represented by Mark

West Rowan High School gradu

On the two hundredth anniversary of our country's existence West Rowan High School graduated 180 seniors to begin, along with the nation, a new venture into the future. With great expectations and a clear understanding of the responsibilities facing them, this years seniors were determined to contribute to the well being of their community state, and nation in the beginning of the next two hundred years

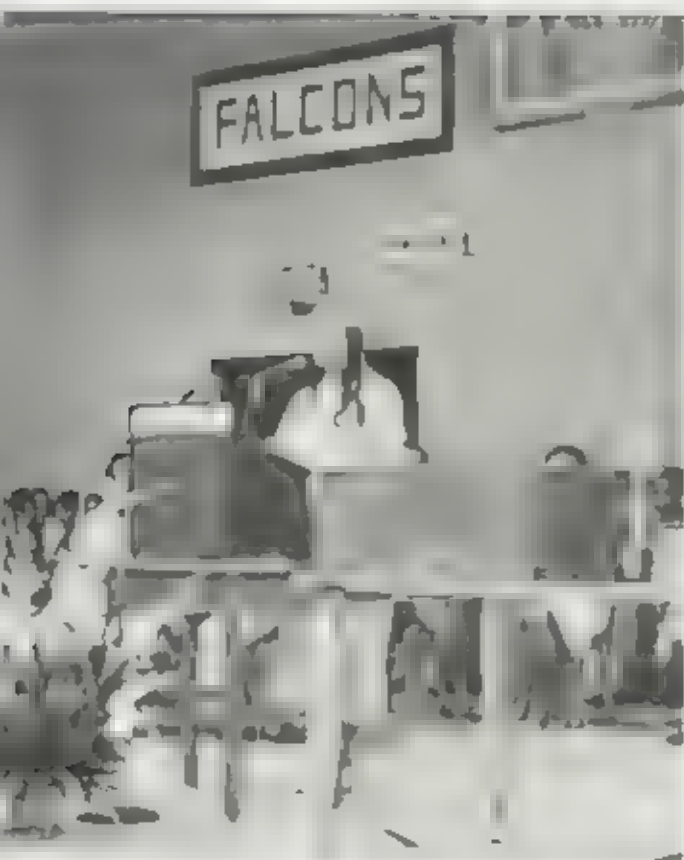

Spirit of '76

ates 180 on June 3, 1976

After the invocation by Roger Dale Safrit, the senior class officers spelled out the four things a man must learn to do. Introducing this topic was Walter Ernest Chambers, Jr. Patricia Denise Bailey spoke on "To think without confusion clearly." "To love his fellow man sincerely" was discussed by Charles Preston Barber, and Claude Alan Bruce elaborated on "To act from honest motives purely." Ending the program spoke on "To trust in God and Heaven securely." After the presentation of diplomas, Mona Yvette Avery pronounced the benediction.

Varsity Cheerleaders 76

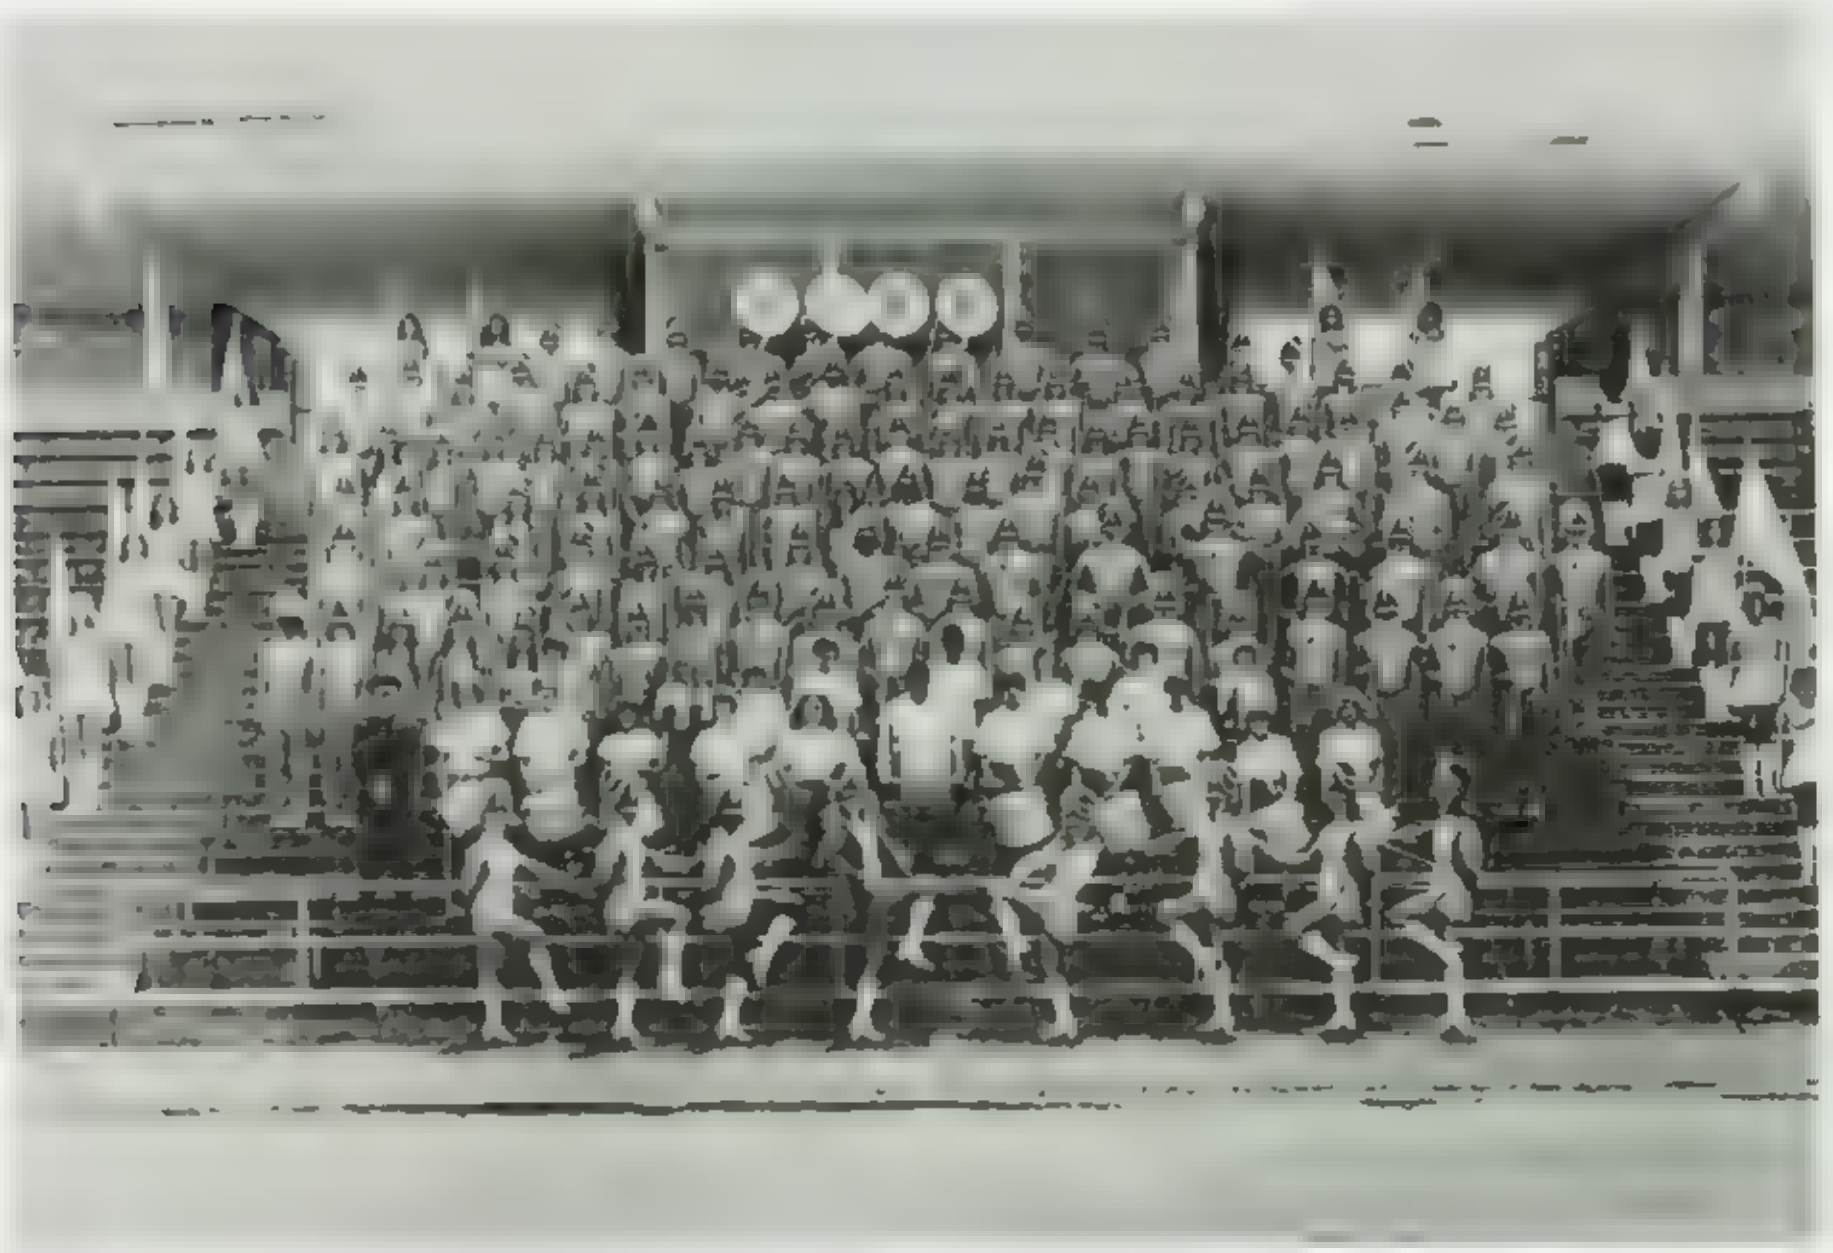

This year's Varsity Squad was the biggest cheerleading squad in the history of our school. The girls had their own problems with each other, but they always stuck together. These girls cheered faithfully for their team and backed them up whether they won or lost. There will be five seniors leaving this year and they will always remember their last year on the Varsity squad. They have many happy memories and all the luck in the world to meet next year's Varsity Cheerleaders.

West Rowan Falcon Marching Band

The West Rowan Band worked very hard this year to provide good entertaining halftime shows. Many hours of hard work were put into the shows. Some of the songs performed were "Nothing from Nothing," "Mercy, Mercy," and "Quejada."

The best halftime show by far was the "Those Were The Days" show shown at the right. Included in this show were, "Mississippi Mud," "Rock Around the Clock" and "TSOP," among others. This show brought a standing ovation from the fans and proved to the band that the hard work paid off well. The last show was on a Spanish theme and brought the season to a very successful end.

Debbie Alwood—Chief Drum Major

Marcia Harris—Assistant Drum Major

Flaggirls

The Flaggirls were very busy this year trying to provide fans with interesting halftime shows. This involved practice in the summer, after school and at night also. But the hard work paid off. Not only did the fans like the shows, but they gave the organization a standing ovation at one show

Majorettes

As did the Flaggirls, the Majorettes also worked hard to entertain during the halftime shows. Something new was used this year. Instead of using fire batons which can be dangerous, glow batons were introduced.

FTA

The FTA club sponsored their traditional American Education Week. They brought many exciting speakers to talk to the students. Everyone enjoyed each speaker. The club took a trip to Pineville Dinner Theatre to see "Fiddler on the Roof." Sponsors once again this year were Mrs. Joyce Sloop and Miss Elizabeth Edmundson.

FHA

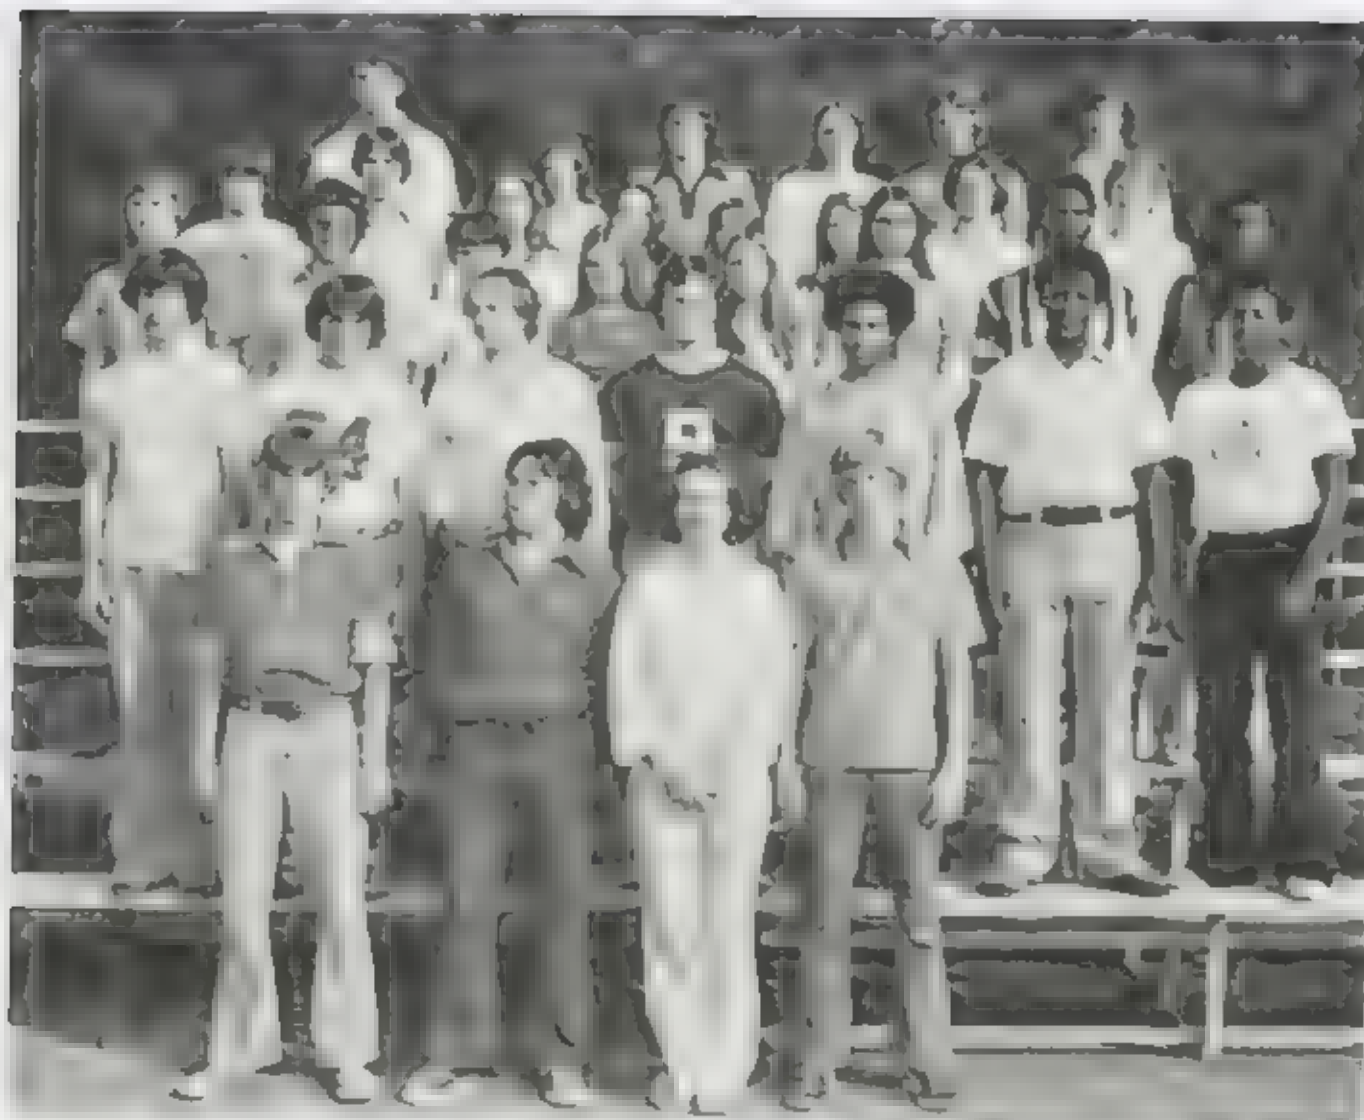

This club made brownies for home-room winners during contests, sponsored door decorations and made different types of clothing

FFA

The dairy team won 1st place in Rowan County Fair. Livestock team placed 2nd. They won the wildlife Association FFA Conservation award. The individual award of $50 was to Clark Knox. This year Mark Wetmore won the FFA Future Farmer of the year award. He was selected grand champion over two other FFA Chapter winners, and was presented $35 cash and a trophy which he will keep until the next winner is chosen in early 1977

Mono-gram Club

These student athletes continued their tradition of buying letter jackets. Officers were Neely McLaughlin—Sec. Treas. Stan Mowery—Vice Pres., Pam McLean—Reporter, Mallory McDaniel—Pres.

Pep Club

These students were a big help to the Varsity Cheerleaders this year. They supported their teams and attended the games. They were sponsored by the Varsity Cheerleaders and were given identification cards stating that they were members of the Pep Club.

The Chorus put in a lot of hard work and long hours memorizing and practicing. They performed for winter and spring concerts under a new director, Mrs. Shores

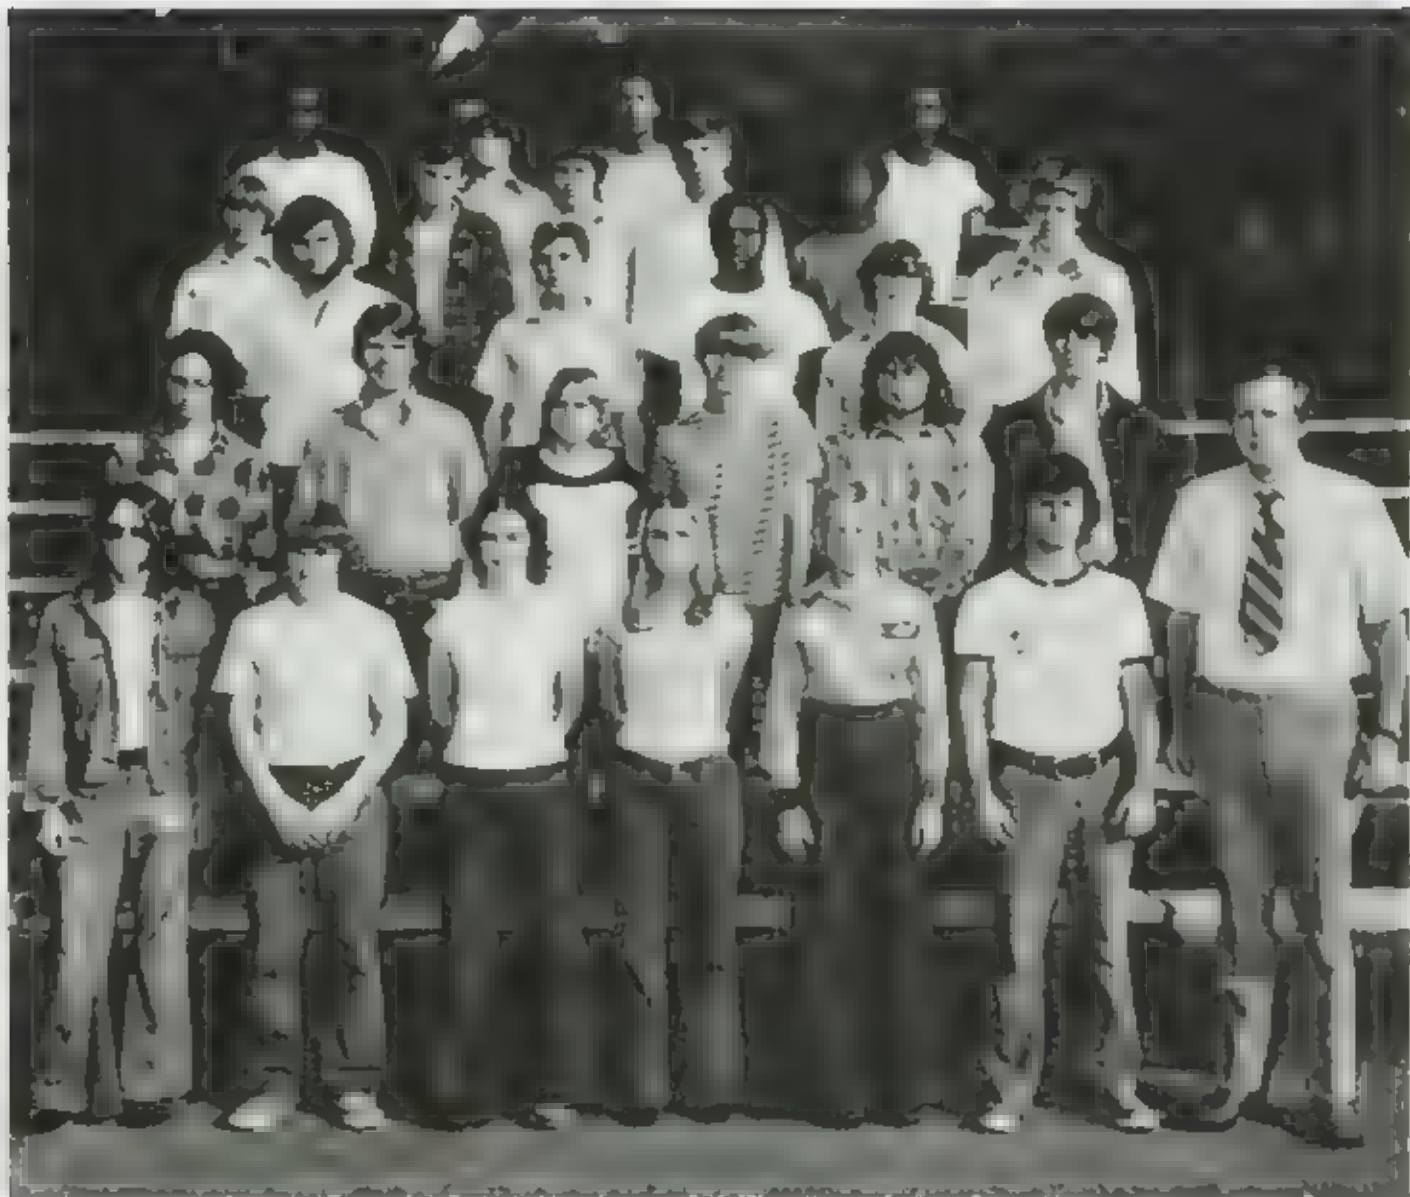

Health Careers

Health Careers had another busy year under the direction of Mrs. Shuford. The purpose of the club was to stimulate the interest in health careers and provided an opportunity for the members to take part in the projects, such as trav favors and Christmas wreaths for the nursing homes. Senior Teachers' Assistants

Student assistants proved to be a great help to teachers this year. Trusty lab assistants helped with experiments, washed test tubes, cleaned up labs, and sometimes picked up broken test tubes. Coaches had their assistants washing towels, checking the showers and often leading activities. Other assistants graded tests and ran errands.

Underclassmen Teachers' Assistants

Library Assistants

The library assistants worked hard in cooperation with Miss Sharp and clerical aide, Mrs McIntyre, this year. They had jobs of checking out books, signing passes and doing other daily routine duties in the library. Working in the library gave these students a chance to gain knowledge and experience in the field of library science. The students also kept busy filling out worksheets, keeping notes, and taking tests.

Bus Drivers

These courageous souls survived another year of hauling screaming kids to school and home. The only things that could ease the headaches were aspirin and PAYDAY. An annual bus banquet was held, and various prizes were given. To these brave souls we give our congratulations for surviving another year.

Spanish Club

Spanish Club enjoyed another active year under the able guidance of their advisor Mr. Shoaf. They dined at Pedro's in Charlotte and sampled Spanish food. They also had a Halloween party. Officers are Manny Bronson, Reporter; Sandy Waller, Treasurer; Eric Miller, Vice President; Mary Jo Pence, Representative; Pam Jordan, President; and Ruth Sloop, Secretary.

French Club

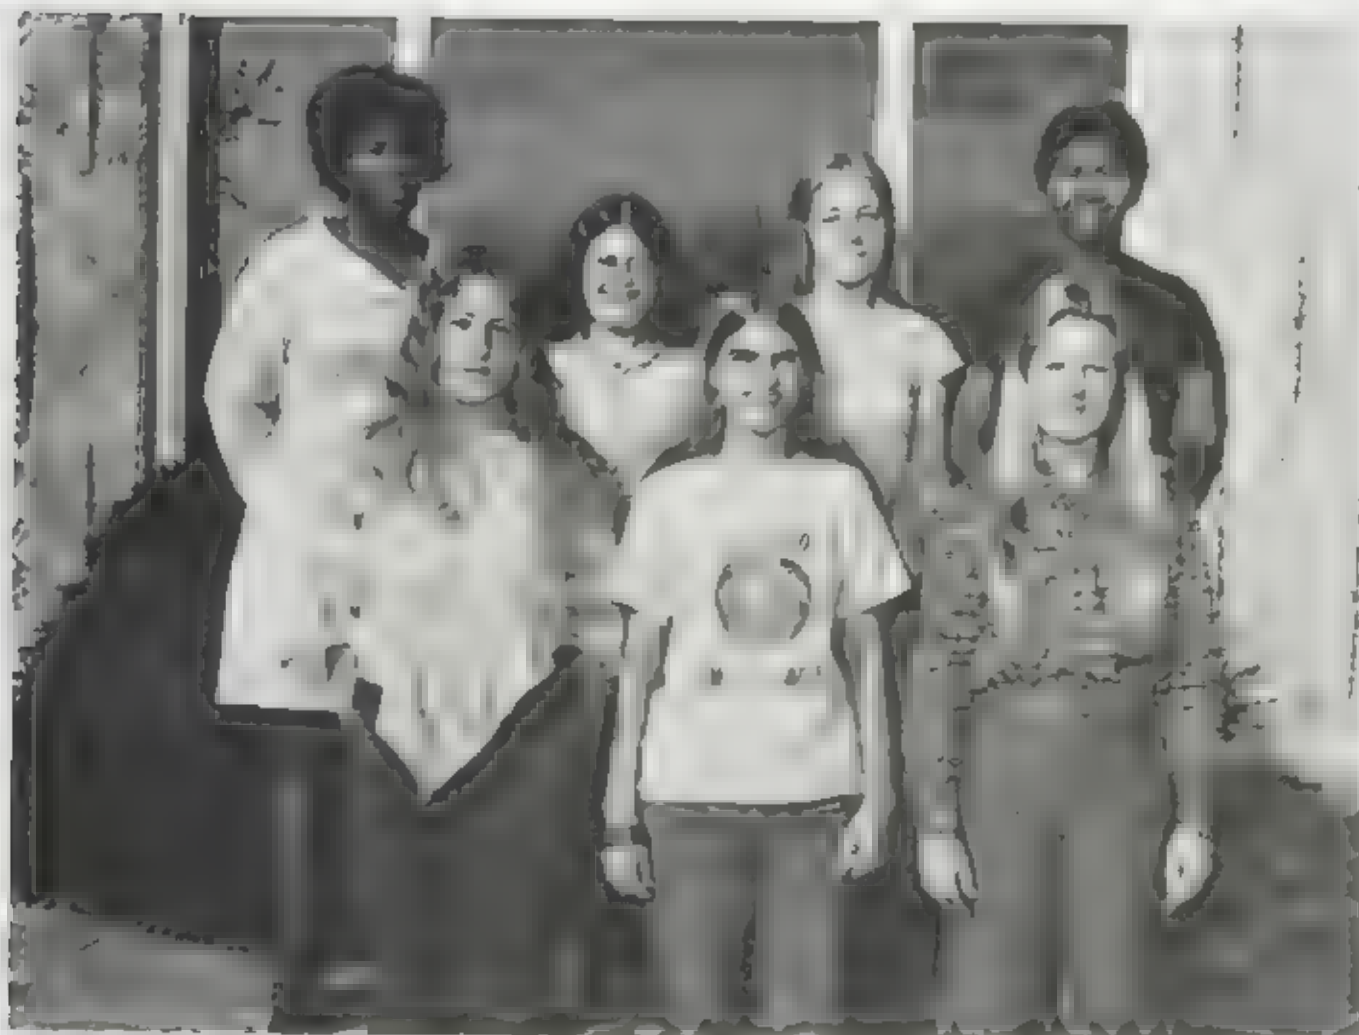

The French Club had a very exciting year. They dined at a French Restaurant in Charlotte, went ice skating, enjoyed hearing speaker Joan Brown describe a French wedding and the new Charles de Gaulle International Airport, and planned a joint junket with the North Rowan club to Biltmore House.

Bible Club

The chief purpose of the Bible Club was to promote fellowship among Christians and draw them to Christ through effective personal witnessing. Students heard speakers and saw films and held panel discussions throughout the year. They also went to fall and spring state retreat. Meetings are sometimes held in Kannapolis.

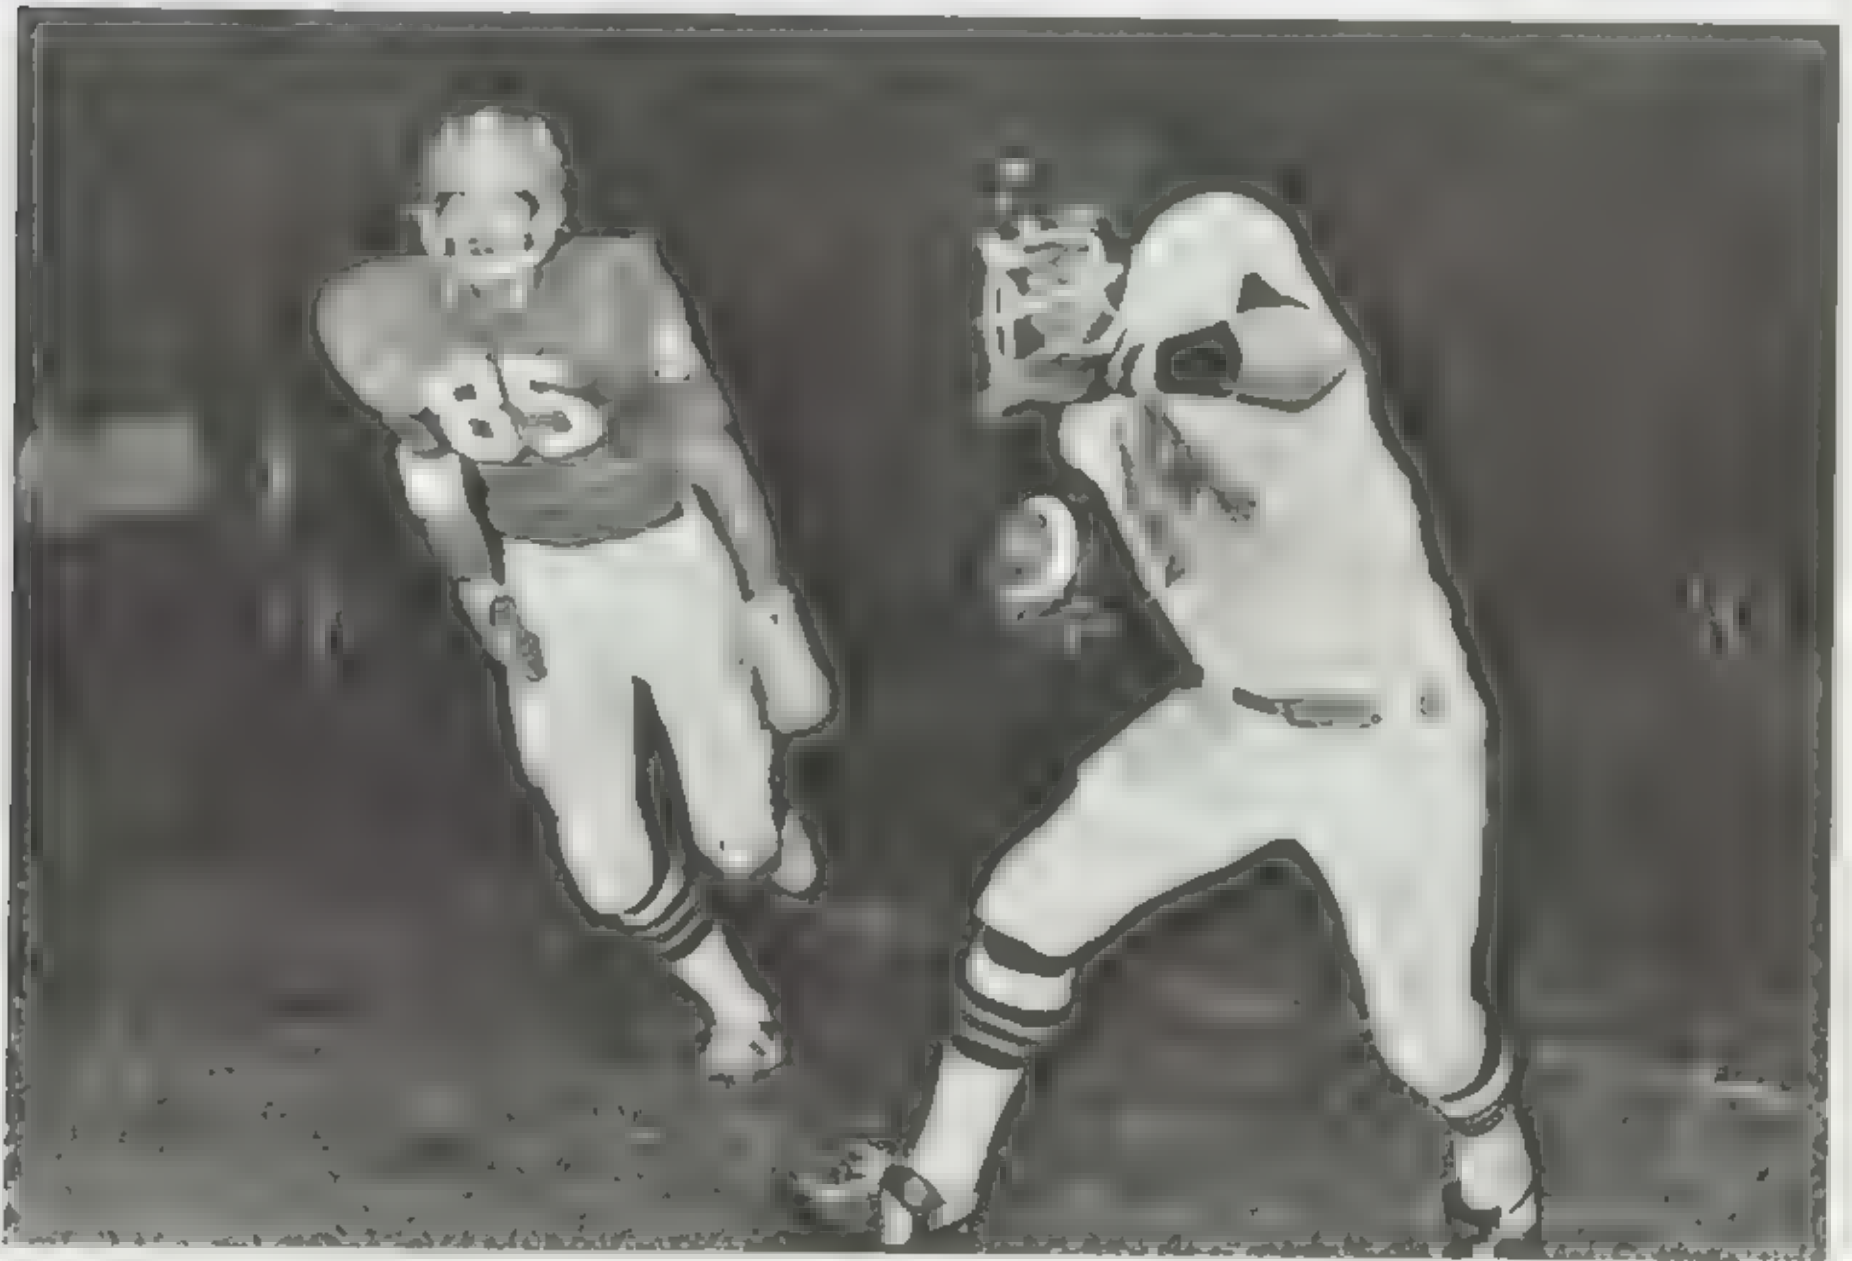

Hero Club

These students put in an active year with their advisor, Mrs. Diefenderfer. Films were shown on early childhood education, and parties were given during holidays to special education children. The main purpose of the club is to foster interest in childhood. These students were divided into groups and went to the four different elementary schools; Mt. Ulla, Hurley, Cleveland, and Woodleaf.

Falcons Field Good Team

Under new coach Lou Manning, the Falcons produced a young team, but still finished well in the conference with a 4-5-1 record for the 1975 season. Bryan Richardson (right) talks over key play with Coach Manning. Dale Brawley (bottom) goes for a tackle against an opposing player. Robert Garrison (far right) picks up good yardage against North Iredell as Andre Cowan rips off good yardage against South Rowan
